DD/P Comments on Regulation [REDACTED]

I have responded to the three points of disagreement identified by DD/P, and given you the benefit of our reasoning in the attached.

a. (1) sounds OK, but unless you charge Operating Officials with this responsibility a lot of additional checking will be required of CCD.

b. (2) is not acceptable. We are quite willing to withdraw the Office of Training responsibility which has been operative for over six years, but if we do so I fail to see why the common ground rules outlined in [REDACTED] are inadequate.

c. (3) is OK, but would mean an increase in workload for CCD of approximately 1500% regarding external training request activity — practically all of which would be unnecessary.
